Infected with Apathy – Healed by Creativity

Student apathy may be the most frustrating factor in education today. Apathy results in low attendance rates, failure to do homework, and poor academic performance. Student apathy has an impact on staff morale and the climate/culture of the school. This session focuses on the Eight Elements of Effectiveness to Motivate Students to Learn. During this session, attendees will learn several strategies to motivate students to learn. All activities will be modeled and demonstrated. Attendees will be active participants in all activities. You will leave this session with practical strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom. This is a session that doesn't focus on the "why." This is a session that focuses on the "HOW." Come to this session and learn how to light the fire of the "Bored of Education."

Kim Campbell

If You Can't Manage Them, You Can't Engage Them!

Creating a positive classroom environment is critical to ensure the learning of all students. As the demands on teachers increase and students become more challenging, it is vital that a positive caring atmosphere be created and established by the teacher. Join Kim for easy practical tips in managing your classroom and creating a community in which all students have an opportunity to learn.

Technology: The Great Motivator

Web 2.0, wikis, blogs, podcast, and video cast all intrigue the 21st Century Learner. Why not use those tools to teach your content? This fast-food, fast-paced, FaceBook generation will learn more of your content when they are using the tools of today. Come in and see what's out there, how other schools are using the tools, and find out how to adapt these pieces into your classroom. If you WANT to use technology but have always been fearful, this is the workshop for you! We will click, explore, and brainstorm new ways to motivate the students of today for a future tomorrow!

The Team-Building Institute

Who do you think is the best team of all time? Was it the Chicago Bulls led by Michael Jordan in the 1990's? Was it the Boston Celtics led by Larry Bird in the 1980's? Was it a sales team at a Fortune 500 company? Was it a surgical team that saved someone's life? Is it the guys at Pike's Place Fish Market? There is no "I" in the word, "TEAM." In this session, attendees will learn the dynamics to make your faculty a high performing team. Education isn't about shutting our door and doing our own thing. It's not about isolation and individualism. The faculty must hit on all cylinders collaboratively in order to be a high performing team. During this session, attendees will participate in a variety of team-building activities that are designed to create a spirit of cohesiveness and togetherness among the entire faculty. You'll learn the answer to the question ... "If Men Are From Mars & Women Are From Venus, Where Do Educators Come From?" Plan to laugh, learn, and have a blast!
